"If it's anything a first-class drugstore should have

Venus Drawing Pencils, 15 grades, each 15c, 2 for 25c

> Eversharp Pencils $1 to $7.50

Waterman Fountain Pens $2.50 to $8.50

> Redipoint Pencils 50c to $3.50

BREEN-LEWIS DRUG CO.

FREE DELIVERY

PHONE NO. 58

LOCAL BREVITIES

Union Taxi Company, Phones 75 and 30. — Advertisement.

We have some good farms for sale. Alf. Dickinson & Son. — Advertise-

Mrs. Ed Babbitt arrived on Friday from Los Angeles where she had been visiting for several weeks.

Mrs. James Scorse of Holbrook is here on a visit to Judge J. E. Jones and family. Mrs. Scorse expects to spend some little time in Flagstaff.

Hugo S. Escobar, 21, a native of Chili, but residing at Williams, and Abundia Corral, 18, also of Williams, were married here on Friday by Judge J. E. Jones.

Mrs. J. F. Davis is looking and feeling fine since her return from the hospital at Phoenix where she underhospital at Phoenix where she under-went treatment and was operated on for appendicitis.

reach 24,000,000 bottles at the end of the present year. Sold by Breen-Lewis Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Francis A. Chisholm, county agricultural agent, left on Tuesday on a two weeks' vacation, to go first to Denver and then to Del Norte, Colo., where his parents live.

F. C. Watson of Lowville, Ohio, stopped over here on his way to Cal-ifornia, visiting with Wm. Beeson and At family for a few days. Mr. Watson resided in Flagstaff at one time.

H. B. Fay and his assistant, Ray Plummer, spent all of last week at the south end of Lake Mary, surveying. They came in over Sunday and left again on Monday to resume oper-staff for many years, and remembered by all the old-timers here, committed suicide at Gallup. N. M., last

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing
Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday afternoon, almost blowing

Wednesday aft head off with a 45 rehave been the cause.

Joe Blumburg left on Friday for Los Angeles for a few days on busi-

J. Harry Bowen and the two little Borum boys spent Friday and Satur-day at Lake Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Espil are happy over the arrival of a young son, born Saturday night at Mercy hospital.

Anyone wishing to sell or buy a city or country home call on us. Alf. Dickinson & Son. — Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Durham left Saturday morning for Stoneman lake, taking L. S. Drumm home. The Durhams will remain there for several Antonio Melandrez, 21, and Maria Ramirez, 18, both of Williams, procured a marriage license Saturday morning and were married by Judge J. E. Jones.

At the present rate of Tanlac sales it is estimated the grand total will

George W. Crosby, Jr., returned last Friday from a trip to Albuquerque, Las Vegas and Santa Fe. He says that in '93 all three towns were about of a size, but that now Albuquerque is larger than the other two com-

At Williams on Friday, in an inter-esting game of baseball, in which each side played both good and indifferent ball, the Williams high school team nosed out the Emerson high school boys in the ninth inning, making three runs and winning by the score of 14 to 13.

James Stamey, a resident of Flag-left after a couple of days here for which Despondency is believed to ported to be doing a great deal damage to live stock.

See me before you Buy, Burn or Die.

Invest in Flagstaff Real Estace, or a lot in the Country Club subdivision. Six times the size of a city lot, for $300

No taxes or interest. Graded streets and city water. Good terms.

W. B. RAUDEBAUGH

Real Estate and Insurance

Phones: Res. 96; Office 165.

T. A. RIORDAN, President. M. J. RIORDAN, Secretary. I. B. KOCH, Vice-Pres., Manager

ARIZONA LUMBER AND TIMBER COMPANY

(Established, 1881)

Manufacturers of

NATIVE PINE LUMBER, PROPS, STULLS

Piling, Ties, Lagging, Boxes, Lath, Shingles, Sash and Doors

FLAGSTAFF

ARIZONA

Union Taxi Company,

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bab itt spent Mrs. W. H. Wright left for Los Angeles Tuesday to spend a few days. City Marshal Bobby Burns of Wil-liams was a Flagstaff visitor on Mon-

Order slabs now for next winter. Rates. Frank Bennett. — Advertise-

Better values in "everything that men year," at Sid Gassman's.—Ad-

Mrs. S. O. Thompson returned from Phoenix Sunday after a visit there Mrs. Jeff Thompson and son Clyde, and Mrs. Cora Travis left Saturday morning for Phoenix for a few weeks Lewis Imm, proprietor of one of the amusement places at Long Beach, Calif., stopped for a few days at the ity camp grounds. Judge X. N. Steeves and F.

Sweetwood spent a few days in Flag-staff this week, Sweeawood having a case in court. They arrived Wednes-

Robert Taylor, Jr., returned last Thursday. Bob had been attending the New Mexico Military academy at Roswell, N. M., and is home for vaca-

The Rev. W. H. Zook and children have returned from Calumet, Okla-homa, and Mr. Zook will conduct the services at the Federated church on

Mrs. Matty Wolfe from Williams, came up Wednesday morning to at-tend the trial of the Towery-Sweetwood case in which she is one of the The dance at Lake Mary Wednesday night was much enjoyed by those in attendance. A larger dance hall will have to be erected to accommodate the people. Chas. McCalmont and family from Nocozari, Sonora, Mexico, are enjoying the beauties of the camp grounds. Mc McCalmont is cashier Phelps-Dodge corporation.

of Lexington, Kentucky. Sold by the Breen-Lewis Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Naomi Telford, Miss Gladys
Chaffin and Mrs. Anna Reckwood, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, the mother and two nieces of Mrs. L. R. Hatl, of the Weatherford Hotel, are here on a visit to Mrs. Hall.

Bollinger, and young son, arrived
Tuesday from Grand Canyon where they had been visiting since they left
Kingman last Friday. The judge presided in the case of Towery vs. Sweetwood.

Mr. Butler, government attendant visit to Mrs. Hall.

tle one, who are visiting in Los An- county jail. geles, will be here before long.

store, near the window, where Clarence Sullivan and Elmer Hart.

Frank Goodman and his assistants, came up Saturday night to spend Sun-day in town, returning to Williams Sunday night.

Young Myron Plack, son of Matt Black, narrowly escaped serious injury Tuesday when a horse he was riding fell, throwing him to the ground. Myron was considerably shaken up and received a few minor bruises and scratches, but no bones were broken.

F. W. Stretch and R. V. Clampitt, heavy on no lieving that is the surest and best paying crop

Oliver Raudebaugh is having a radie outfit rigged up at his residence. He is having one 60-foot and one 40foot steel enameled pole put up, mounted in a five-foot concrete base. His home is wired ready for the radio instruments which he expects will arrive in a short time.

Arthur M. Riordan is very much interested in radio telephony having studied it for the past three years and is now taking an advanced course He is having a radio set sent to him from Chicago and when it arrives will give a demonstration and instruction to whomever wishes it.

Roy H. Rice, U. S. government huster, arrived this week from Topock and left again yesterday for Grand Canyon where he will put up a cable across the Colorado river and instal a water guage station to take daily readings of flow. Mr. Rice helped instal the gauge at Lees Ferry last William, the five-year-old son of ounty Attorney F. M. Gold, had his right leg broken between the hip and Tuesday morning, by falling his coasting wagon. The little from his coasting wagon, fellow is resting comfortably at home, but feels badly because he missed seeing the circus which he was going to attend that afternoon.

Bob Singleton of Cosnino mounted broncho mule Sunday. The mule bucked and cavorted around, finally running away, tearing through wire fences, the wire almost cutting off fences, the wire almost cutting off Bob's leg below the knee. As if that was not enough punishment, the mule threw Bob off breaking his shoulder. He was taken to his home.

Harry E. Miller and wife, of the Mescalero-Apache tribe of Indians, of New Mexico, passed through Flag-staff Monday. Miller is an artist and a fine looking specimen of his tribe, as an arrow. He wears his hair in long braids. The couple make their home at San Diego, California.

With Mrs. Elizabeth Wingar Phoenix, grand matron of the Eastern Star as their special guest, the following picnicked on Wednesday Lake Mary: Mrs. Joe P. Wilson, Mrs. F. O. Allen, Mrs. D. S. Roome and neice, Miss Adrienne Jeorg, of Kan-sas, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Patton, Francis and Fred Patton, Joe Young, the Misses Ardelle and Reba Switzer and Dr. E. S. Miller.

Cool khaki shirts, $1.25 at Sid Gass man's.—Advertisement.
Union Taxi Company,
and 30. — Advertisement.

Billy Wallace from Mormon Lake was in town Wednesday on business. John Ryan is here from Wicken-burg, arriving Tuesday, and will likely stay for the summer. Chet Black and Charlie and Paul Chet Black and Charlie and Paul were up from Williams Saturday for Keller beat it to Oak Creek early a brief visit with her brothers, Jim yesterday morning after trout.

Billy Compton, utility man of the Campbell & Francis sheep company, night from Phoenix with his wife, got home from Phoenix a few days ago for the summer.

Wes Marlar, Horace Nay, Hugh nix after. McGookin and the Misses McGookin, A. J. Alberta Platz and Radah Meador, spent Sunday at Oak Creek.

Mrs. A. J. Mitchell and little boys, the nights are always cool and the returned Sunday from an extended days warm and exhilarating.

W. R. Weems and Conrad Pessarra ranges.

L. L. (Roxey) Dewell left for Wins-low Sunday morning, and from there will go to Sunset Pass where he will start to shear about 25,000 sheep be-longing to A. Miller, Harlow Yaeger and L. Hart.

Al Kohl, who had been a resident of Flagstaff for the past 18 months, a guest of the Rickel family part of the time, left on Monday for Cincinnatt. He likely will be back here before the summer is over.

Tom Phelan and son Eugene took in the Grand Canyon Sunday, return-ing by way of Maine. Tom and his wife left for Oak creek Monday night where he will spend his two weeks' vacation trout fishing.

R. Tom Brown, coming up from the south with his sheep, left them at Mormon Lake to be drifted on to the summer range and came in to get acquainted with Mrs. Brown and squire her around again this summer.

K. N. Nagel, who played fine baseball here two years ago, and who was with the Denver team of the western "I would not take $1,000 for what association, is now working in the that wonderful Tanlac medicine has done for me," said Mrs. Mattie Lutes, naw & Manistee Lumber company.

Judge E. E. Bollinger with Mrs. Bollinger, and young son, arrived

visit to Mrs. Hall.

Ira Hart came up from his cattle kins back to the insane asylum at Patranges the first of the week, and will ton, California, Tuesday. Elkins esmake this his headquarters again caped from the asylum and was this summer. Mrs. Hart and the lit-

Although a powerful reconstructive Chet Black has moved the meat de- tonic, Tanlac contains no harmful inpartment to the front of his grocery gredients, minerals or opiates, which are so often found in other medicines. passers-by can get a close-up of the industrious boys behind the counter, children with splendid results.—Breen Lewis Drug Co.-Advertisement.

J. B. Urban spent part of the week goods house of Phoenix. Mr. Urban not long ago married the widow of Edgar Brown, a former attache of the Babbitt store here.

Don't make any date for Sunday afternoon, you baseball fans, for the Flagstaff team will play the Indians from Leupp at 2:30 at the ball park. The Leupp aggregation always puts up a good, scrappy game, and as the home team has been strengthened, a fast and exciting game is expected.

mon Lake Tuesday and got away with about $25 worth of groceries. They commandeered a wagon and mules and made off with the stuff. The sheriff's office was notified and Deputy Sheriffs Rudd and Garrett went out and traced the outfit to Long Valley where they arrested John Black, Ernest Potter and Eldridge Newton and brought them to Flagstaff, placing them in the county bastile. The man and boy who were driving the wagon and mules were not arrested as the trio said they had nothing to do with the robbery.

Ed Spitz, the wool man, is here rom Albuquerque on business.

Have your clothes made to order by Hart Schaffner & Marx at Sig assman's.—Advertisement.

John Verkamp and family motored out on Sunday half-way to Oak creek and spent the day picnicing. Mrs. W. R. Renshaw and little son

Billy Switzer got home Saturday

A. J. Le Barron and family, in-cluding Teddy, have arrived from Phoenix to spend the summer where states.

Walter Le Barron, right hand man of his father, Jack Le Barron, in the sheep business, got home the last of last week from the southern sheep.

W. R. Weems and Conrad Pessarra were in town the first of the week from Anderson Mesa. Both did so well raising teams last summer that they are increasing their acreage, Pessarra planting about 20 acres and Weens.

Roy Garrett is up from Ash creek o spend the summer.

Union Taxi Company, Phones 75 and 30. — Advertisement. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Green are having their home in the northeast part of town rebuilt and enlarged, making it into an attractive bunga-

VETERINARY SURGEON

Roy G. Scanlon, 201 N. San Francisco St. Phone 185. Flagstaff, Ariz.

NAVAJO RUGS

Selected for Good Quality and Design J. H. FROHMILLER

Make Your Walls Permanent

The life of the walls of your building determine the life of the building. Make your walls permanent by using our pressed cement brick.

Low in Price But High in Quality

A wall made of our brick will be fire proof, moisture proof and frost proof. In the end it is the cheapest wall you can build.

Arizona Quarry & Concrete Co.

G. T. HERRINGTON, Manager

PLUMBING

TINNING

HEATING

Head Light Lenses

-We keep over 200-to fit any car-on hand all the time. This is the only place where you are SURE to get the right one.

Get That New SPRING Here

Gasoline and Oil

WILSON & COFFIN

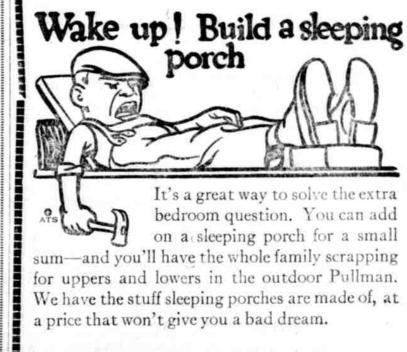

"The Men Who Plumb Flagstaff" 112 East Aspen Phone 108

............

-No matter how soiled or spotted that suit or dress may be, we'll knock those stains out in short order. Often your favorite dress shows signs of wear and you hate to discard it. DON'T! Send it to us and you'll be delighted with the results. We guarantee our work and want your business.

PHONE 51

Flagstaff Lumber Co.